

WINE ENTHUSIAST[®]

MAGAZINE

CHILEAN REDS

Cabernets and blends

90 Caliboro Estate 2006 Erasmo (Maule Valley); $ 30. A little lean and fiery from nose to tail, but amid all the heavyweights coming from Chile that might be a good thing. The palate is tight, acid and fresh, with an Old World mouthfeel and flavors of dried berry, earth, tobacco and spice. Snappy and crisp on the finish, with a final wave of propelling acidity. Drink now through 2014. Imported by Palm Bay International – M.S.

BUYING GUIDE JUNE 2011